

RESIDENT OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Michigan Association of Osteopathic Family Physicians (MAOFP) is requesting nominations for our prestigious annual award that recognizes the outstanding Osteopathic Family Medicine Resident of the Year.

Nominees for this award should be a member in good standing of MAOFP and exemplify the highest qualities of dedication to the osteopathic profession, to patients, and to the community through professional and public service as a resident. Scholarly and leadership activities will also be recognized.

The award recipient will be invited to attend the MAOFP Summer Family Medicine Update Conference to receive a plaque, a $250 monetary prize, and congratulations during the President's Banquet and Award Ceremony.

The criteria for this award will be based on the nominee's strengths in the following areas:

- Leadership qualities and community involvement during educational training (e.g. chief resident, chief intern, volunteering for organization of community projects, etc.)
- Dedication to the osteopathic profession (e.g. teaching, involvement in political action/committees, etc.)
- Dedication to osteopathic family medicine (e.g. involvement in committees, advocacy efforts, etc.)
- Scholarly achievement in the field of family medicine (e.g. research, submitting resident scholarly activity, etc.)

Osteopathic physician candidates for the Resident of the Year award can be nominated by any of the following: a preceptor, faculty member, mentor, DME, hospital administrator, physician, or another resident.

Each candidate must submit a one-page biography, as well as a written statement(s) from each nominating person. The resident may have more than one nominating individual. This information can be filled out using the attached form. A curriculum vitae must be attached as a separate document.

Send all nomination documents to info@maofp.org.
